To Mrs. Sue Ann Kime, a warm and spirited individual, we proudly dedicate this yearbook. Not one of us who has ever sat in her class is likely to forget the time and energy she spent for our benefit. The outlines we wrote, quizzes we moaned over, and unit tests we crossed our fingers for will forever remain in our memories, as will the immediate cause of World War I and the dates of the Hundred Years War. For her continual willingness to devote her spare time to our problems and for her efforts on our behalf in many phases of school activity, we thank her.

Frederick A. "Fritz" Jordan

When Mr. Stewart was hired in 1940 to be an Industrial Arts teacher and Debate coach at what was then the Junior-Senior High on Route 44, the facilities were hardly sumptuous. Since there was no shop, he established one in a custodian's storage area and garage for the school's one vehicle (a station wagon!).

On school days during the World War II years, Mr. Stewart began his day 3 hours before school started so that his shop classes could produce solid model airplanes used to train naval recruits in airplane recognition. He has also sponsored a Technical Club to provide a student volunteer AV service, been an assistant Debate coach for teams that were the best in the state for many years, and coached basketball for 2 wartime seasons. During his 9 years as G.O. faculty advisor, an outstanding AFS program began and flourished.

Mr. Stewart's expertise and foresight have helped to produce an excellent district-wide Industrial Arts program. As acting head of the I.A. department from 1946 to the present, he has been largely responsible for designing the new I.A. shops at both the Arlington and LaGrange Junior High Schools and the I.A. wing at AHS.

As a man who is devoted to his profession, Mr. Stewart takes great pride in the many students he has helped to become successful, contributing members of society. A great contributor himself, he devotes a large amount of his free time to community service. Very active in the Town of Pleasant Valley, he has served as Town Councilman and was elected to 2 terms as Town Supervisor. He has been a trustee, deacon and an elder at the Pleasant Valley Presbyterian Church.

After 37 years at AHS, we foresee a very active and rewarding retirement for Mr. Stewart.

To athletes and former athletes of all ages, Coach "Fritz" Jordan is "Mr. Sports." His name evokes vivid memories of games, teams, and a very special career in sports. For alumni of AHS, those 40 years of memories are warm; for alumni of other schools they are often of defeat by teams led by a spirited and dedicated man whose concern for building character is stronger than for winning. Coach Jordan's sincere interest in all of his players and his talent for bringing out the best in them has earned him their lasting respect and affection. A master at recognizing good sportsmanship and potential athletic ability, he has a keen sense of justice, a talent for righting wrongs by recalling things done right and praising the deserving.

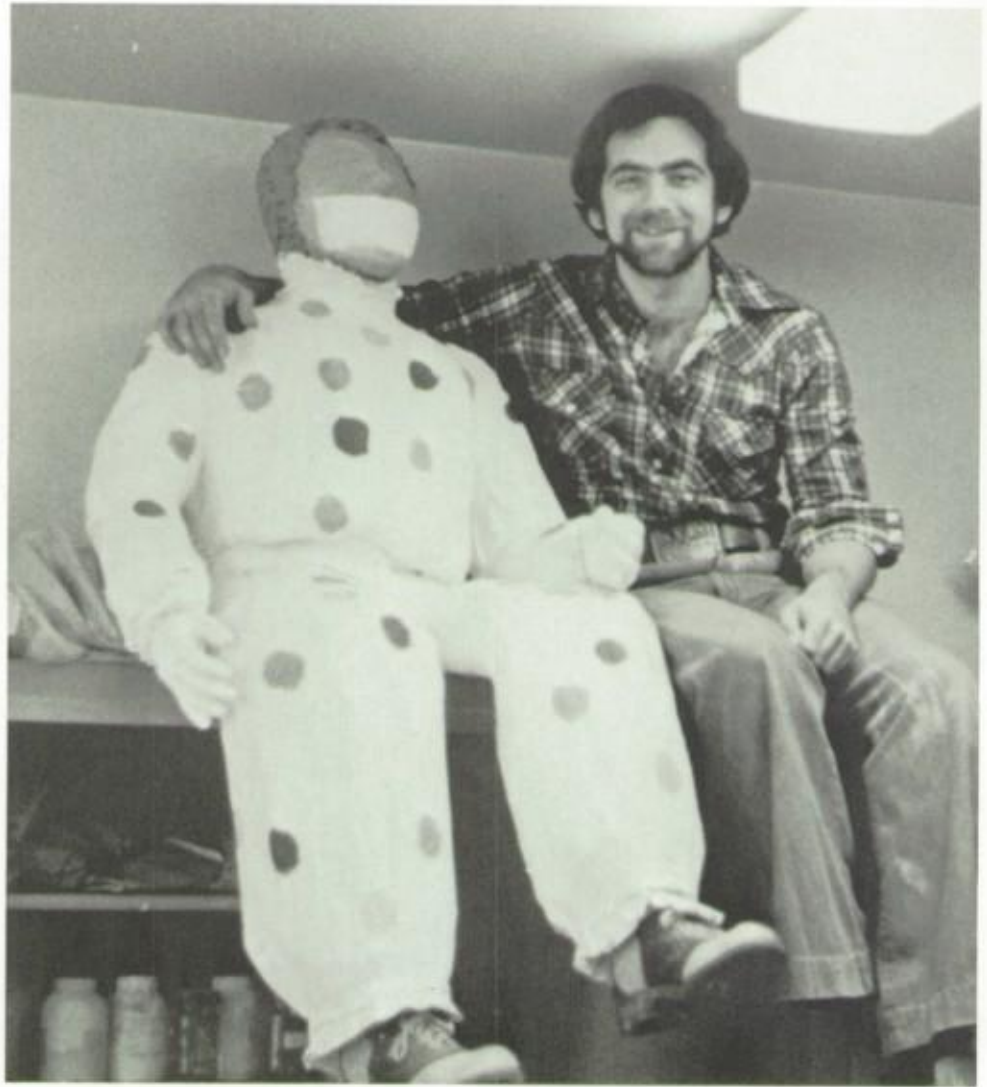

After graduation from Springfield College in 1933, Coach Jordan taught physical education and coached all sports at Pine Plains before coming to Arlington in 1937. As director of Health, Phys. Ed., and Athletics, he taught P.E. and coached varsity football, basketball, and baseball until 1961, continuing to coach baseball until illness forced him to reluctantly give it up in 1974.

Coach Jordan's dedication to sports and players has produced a phenomenal record: 4 DCSL championship teams at Pine Plains and 36 at AHS (for a combined total of 40: 18 in basketball, 11 in football, 10 in baseball and 1 in soccer), some going on to win State Sectional championships; 3 undefeated football teams; 1 undefeated basketball team; an unprecedented "Double Grand Slam" when his football, basketball, and baseball teams won DCSL championships 2 years in a row; and teams that have won over 1000 games, giving him a lifetime winning percentage of .750. He also has the distinction of having been elected to the Dutchess County Hall of Fame in both basketball and baseball.

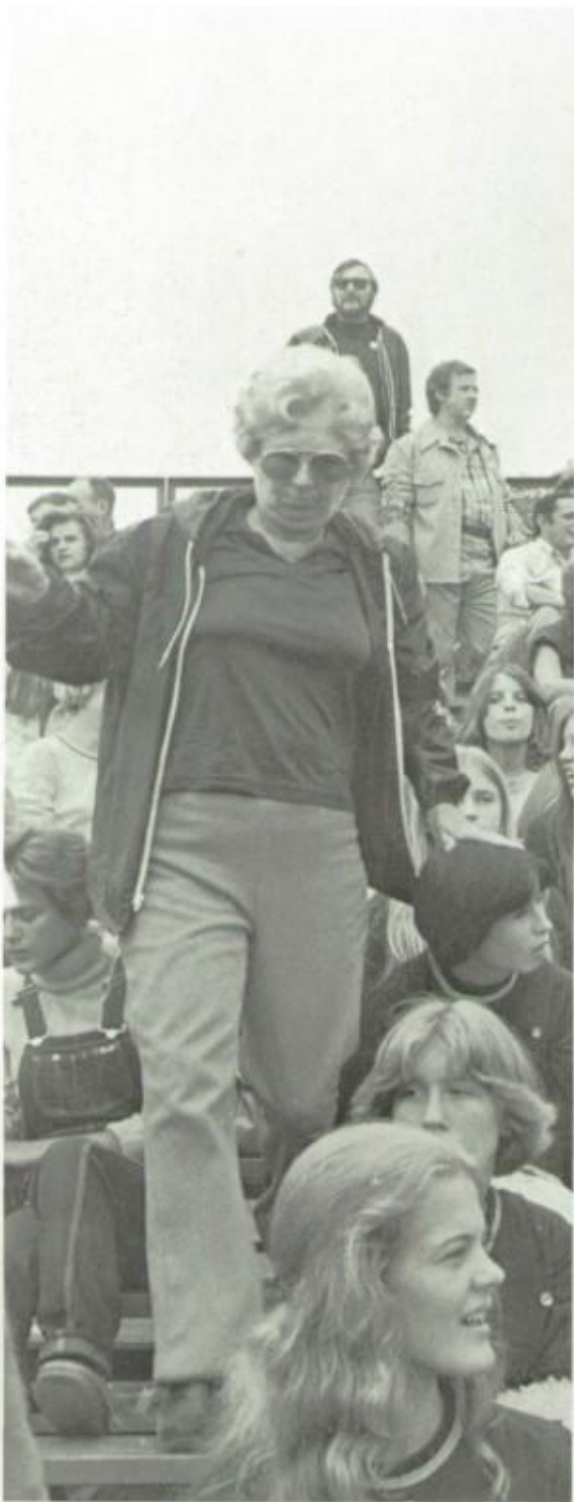

We wish him many happy years with his family and his golf.

John J. Stewart

Me and my gal.

Geronimo!

It'd be so much easier if I could use scotch tape.

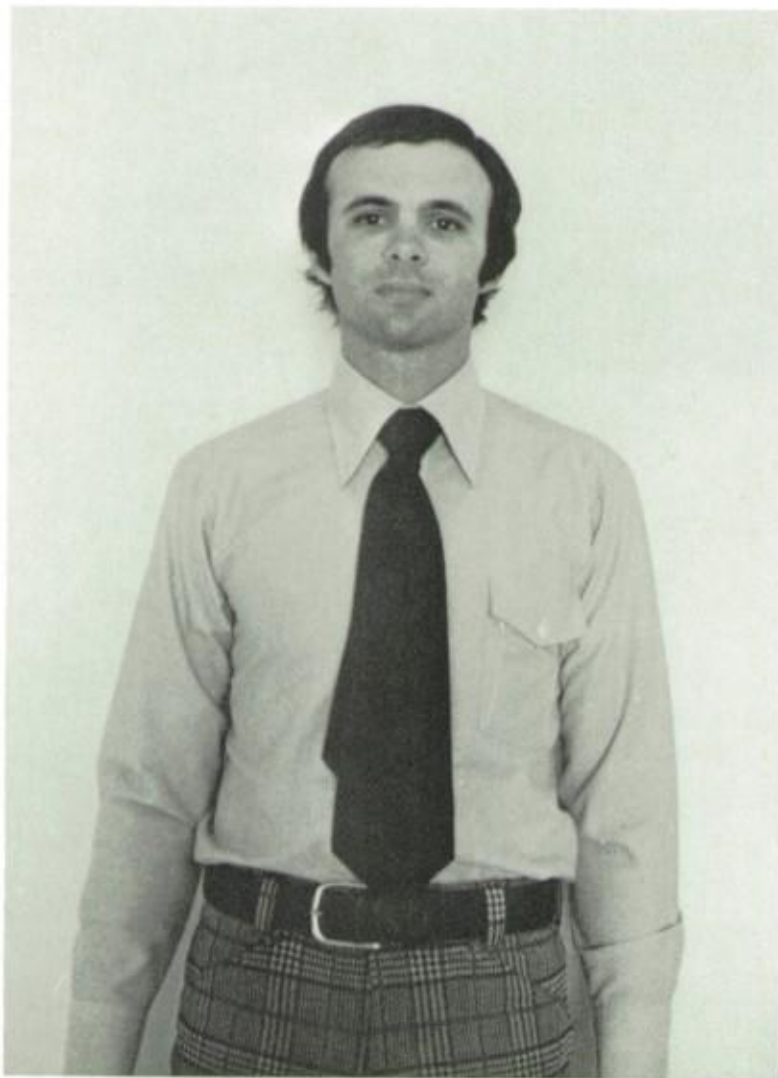

I know there is a bus shortage, but this is ridiculous.

Ah, department meetings!

Girl Scout cookies are $5 a box?

307-7441-5QJ: Public Enemy #1

Maybe next year he'll balance a ball on his nose, too.

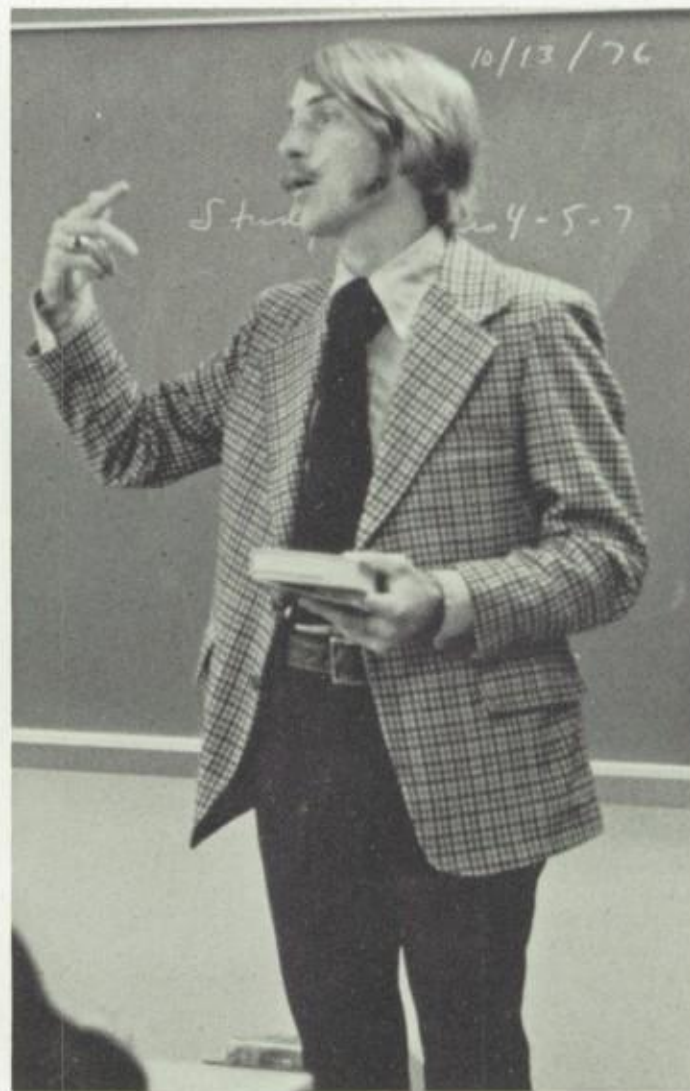

And then he said . . .

Well maybe if you hold it upside down . . .

Always on top of the situation.

Here birdie, birdie.

The j.v. volleyball team played nearly as well as the varsity this year, ending the season with a 17-1 record. Aided by Coach Cally's guidance and support, the girls worked together to produce a record they can look at with pride. Each of the girls hopes for a successful season next year, and looks forward to competing for the varsity team.

Under Coach Cally's leadership and guidance, the varsity volleyball team ended its season with a record of 18 and 0, and for the second year in a row was Mid-Hudson Conference champion. Their record shows that the co-operation is a large part of their playing ability.

Individuals stand out, too, in the team: Barb Dombroski, Laurie Hanssler, Diane Schultz, and Karen Whalen were selected for the All-County first team, and Lori Mallet received an honorable mention. The team's seniors leave proud of their record, and its underclass members look forward to repeat performance next year.

After a disappointing record last year of 4 wins and 6 losses, the field hockey team hoped and worked for improvement this past season. After a first game loss to Mount St. Mary's, the girls came back with a final tally of 5-4-1. With Mrs. Bennison's able guidance, the girls hope for an even better season next year.

Coaches Keene and Young guided the j.v. football team through a rather successful season. Both men have prepared the team well for future varsity playing. Their 7-1 record surpassed the 6-2 standing of the varsity team, and enabled them to stand tied as league champions at the end of the season.

varsity football

A loss to Poughkeepsie early in the season dampened the Admirals' hopes for the league championship this year. Although the team did manage to pull ahead of Poughkeepsie, their 6-2 record was not sufficient to earn them the title. Still, Coaches Detmer and Murphy had reason to be proud of their team. Standouts among the players were John Richardson, Steve Haymes, and Tim Mackey; together the team hope to regain their championship status next year.

Arlington's varsity soccer team closed its season with comparative success this year. Teamwork seems to have been the secret. Though the team lost the AA-A open in double overtime, they finished their year's efforts with a record of twelve wins and four losses, holding high hopes for an even better standing next year.

Unfortunately, both girls' basketball teams faced dismal seasons this year. With most of their games behind them, their records stood with more losses than wins and few bright prospects ahead of them. Still, the girls, under Coaches Cindy and Bob Young, are trying hard and hoping to improve their scores before the end of the season.

Three-quarters of the way through the season, Arlington's wrestlers stand well ahead of their last year's record. With eleven wins and four losses, the team looks forward to finishing the divisionals successfully. Some of the best on this year's team are Jeff Wright, Paul Hanlon, Dave Platt, and John De-Stories.

The CVS program offers an opportunity for concerned students to become involved in the school and local communities. Volunteers provide much needed assistance in classrooms throughout the Arlington district, helping students to benefit from tutorial or small group learning situations. They assist in libraries, phys. ed. programs, and the AHS audio-visual department; they serve as messengers and office assistants for the guidance and main offices.

Student volunteers have also been involved in the following capacities and/or programs: motor coordination project assistants, tutors for physically or mentally handicapped students, life guards for school-sponsored swimming programs, companion-helpers for adult victims of muscular dystrophy, and fund raisers for the American Cancer Society. Volunteers have also been of great assistance to the Association for Retarded Children Workshop, the Freedom Plains Nursery School, the Freedom Plains Senior Citizens, rehabilitation programs, the YMCA, and St. Francis and Vassar Brothers hospitals.

Students listed on the preceding page are those who participated in this year's CVS program as of mid-February 1977.

This past theater season at Arlington has been as successful as every other. Production of GOD'S FAVORITE ran smoothly; everyone contributed his best for a result that was as enjoyable for the cast and crew as it was for the audience. The new names added to this year's roster are certain to keep the troupe's standard up in coming seasons.

Before we take our last look at triforms, copy sheets, pica rulers, and correction fluid, we'd like to thank everyone who helped to make this book so much fun to put together. We sincerely appreciate the efforts of those staff members who spent numerous free periods selling yearbooks, taking pictures, and copying layouts. We also wish to thank Mrs. Daly, for tallying our financial assets, and Mr. Frank, for giving up his room on a few Wednesday afternoons.

To Mr. Landolfa and Mrs. Wilhelm, we cannot express thanks enough. Mr. Landolfa's foresight in considering our subscriptions management saved us time, money, and headaches, and Mrs. Wilhelm's aid has been invaluable to us. For her recruiting, researching, writing, and last-minute typing, we truly thank her.

Did you paint your smile on?
Well I said I knew that my reason for living is for loving you. We're related in feeling — but you're high above, you're pure and you're gentle
with the grace of a dove.
And I wonder sometimes, and I know I'm unkind, but I need you to turn to when I lose control — you're my guardian angel who keeps out the cold.

We often look, but cannot see,
What of this life there is;
That makes us live the way we do;
That makes life what it is.

But of this life is one thing
sure,
Which we should ne'er forget;
That we are one and individual;
And of this feel no regret.

Our legs fit your legs.

Arlington is for swingers!

Holmes and Yoyo?

I can't believe I got to sit this close to a football player!

I'll get you, my pretty!

Let's hustle!

Be the guy with the hair!

Look, up in the sky! It's a bird, it's a plane, it's . . .

Say it isn't so!

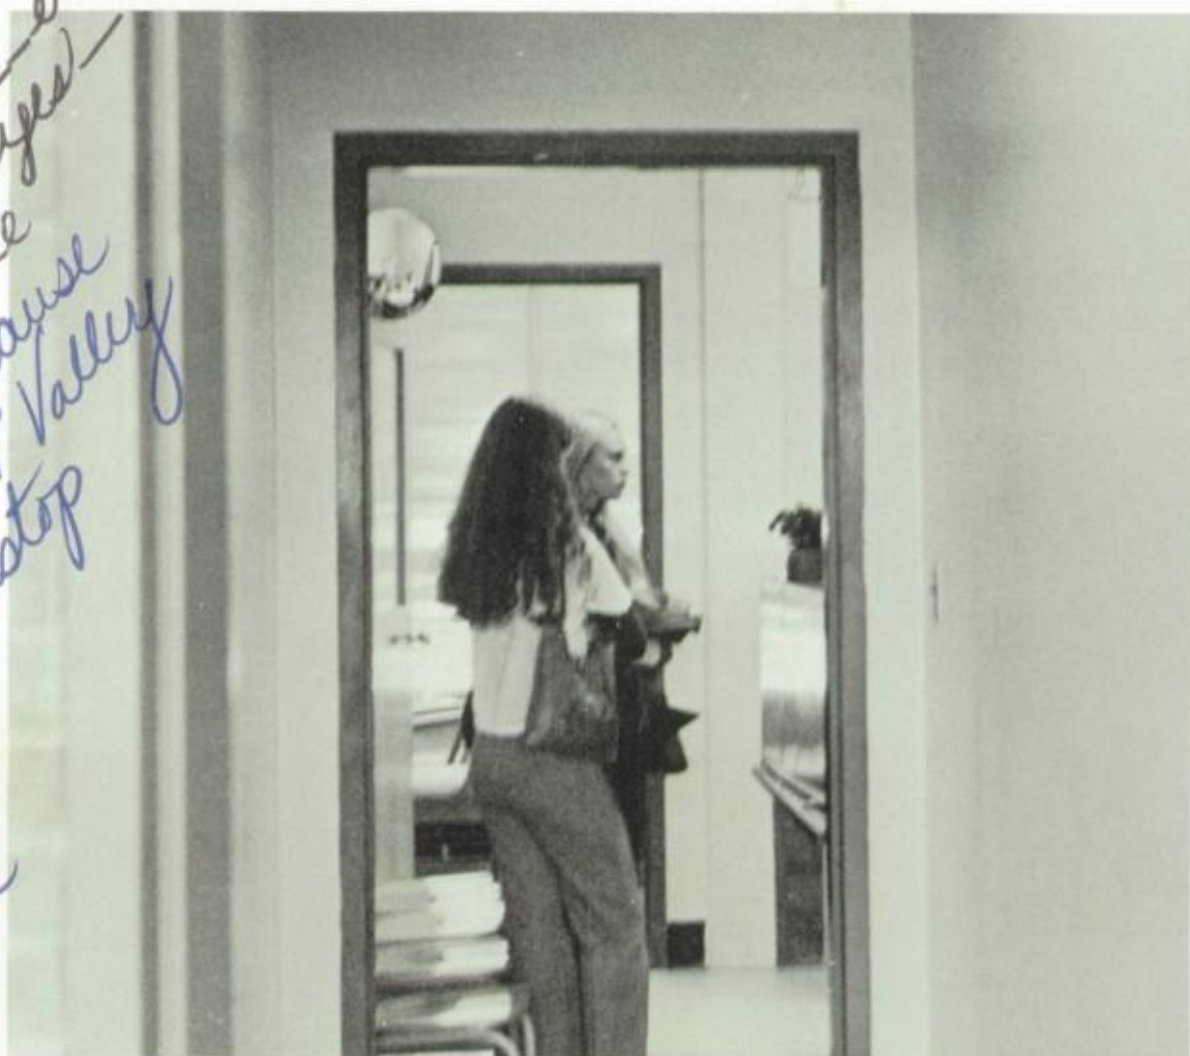

Hello, Fresh Face.

I had a nightmare about Arlington last night.

Well, I don't know if I'm free.

 Matt,
 I am not really
 glad Donna introduced us, but it was alright. You were in our class three as much as yours, so I hope you pass. You may have nice hair, but you still have nice eyes.
 for a girl that is. Have a nice summer. I might see you, because I'll probably visit Pleasant Valley to see Donna - and I'll stop by to say "hello."

 The Class of '77 leaves a hard act to follow.

thanks to that unseen mass producer of apple turnovers, cinnamon buns and cheese Danish, our baker, Mr. George Heinrich. After some coaxing, Mr. Heinrich agreed to disclose, as his graduation present to the senior class, his recipe for that famous Danish. Here it is, in its entirety.

CHEESE DANISH

Danish dough

- ½ quart water
- 6 eggs
- 4 oz. salt
- ½ lb. shortening
- ½ lb. sugar
- 1 lb. flour (approximately)

Mix all ingredients. Put dough on table; take additional ½ lb. butter (at room temperature) and put pieces of butter on half the side of dough. Fold over and roll butter into dough. Repeat rolling dough in same manner 3 times. Store in refrigerator at least 4 hours.

Cheese mix

- ½ lb. cream cheese
- 2 oz. flour
- 2 oz. shortening
- pinch of salt
- 3 oz. sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 tsp. vanilla

Mix all ingredients.

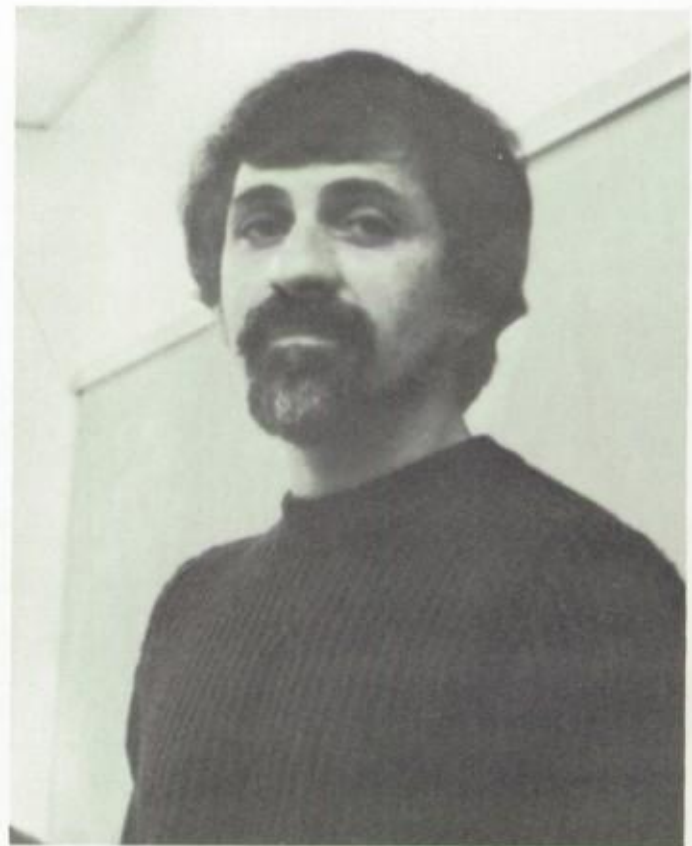

After storing dough in refrigerator, remove it and roll out; cut into 2 by 2 inch squares. Put cheese on top of each square; fold corners over to close. Brush with egg. Let stand 45 minutes before baking.

Bake in a 400° oven until light to medium brown.

Or Matt,
whatever you prefer,
this year was really special, especially because you were a part of it.
Those trips to the print shop were never in rain as long as I saw your smiling face. I think or your face, because I have never seen anything less than a perfect smile. This year, I've met so many different people, and I must say, some were a bit strange, but you were one of the best people I've met. If you ever see me by chance, don't forget to say "hi" or else I'll be very upset. Don't ever forget me because it will be hard to forget you. Good luck with all you do, don't get into trouble, I know it will be hard. May the sun shine eternally down on you! Good luck again!

Love,
Nancy
